

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

All entrants to Newport Rocky Mountain high, in all classes, must confirm that they have read, understood and agreed to all our terms and conditions as detailed on this page prior to entering the event. By completing your purchase of entry we will accept that you are compliant with all FAQ and that you have agreed to proceed with the understanding that these conditions will be adhered to. If you do not agree with any of the conditions detailed below then please do not proceed with your purchase as post-queries will not be accepted. You may however contact us if you have any queries about our conditions before you proceed with a purchase. Please contact us with any questions at info@raceface.ie Cycling Ireland members must include their membership number while entering the event. You will be asked to show evidence of your membership during registration. Non-Cycling Ireland members will pay €10 for a one day licence applicable for 27th February 2022 only and solely for the Newport event.

This fee is included in the price on the website checkout. You will not receive any documentation for this one day licence until registration when you will be required to sign the official Cycling Ireland one day insurance document. Cycling Ireland will provide insurance for all entrants of the Newport Rocky Mountain high event. This will be effective from 9am Sunday 27th February 2022 until you cross the finish line outside Hotel Newport on the same date.

Entries are strictly non-refundable. Upon purchase of entry we begin preparing on your behalf by ordering GPS tracker, coded wristband, and other goods. It is for this reason that we cannot offer a refund, in part or in full, if you decide to cancel. No exceptions will be made. Also note that transfers or deferments will not be allowed.

Participants must accept that in the event of extreme weather, safety issues or any other events that directly affect the welfare of participants that the event schedule may be altered or postponed to prevent risk to participants and staff of the event. Decisions will be made by the event safety officer in congress with local authorities and event partners to issue a final decision. Participant welfare is paramount and will be the deciding factor. In the event of postponement a rescheduled date will be arranged. Entrants who do not wish to participate in a rescheduled event will be eligible to receive a refund in full, payable within 30 days of the announcement of the rescheduled date or transfer to the following year.

EVENT DAY

All riders must sign our indemnity form in order to take part in the event. Official parking spaces are provided at the ??? and surrounding carparks that will be specified on the event briefing. Please note that we are not responsible for damage or theft of your vehicle and you park at your own risk. All entrants must be prepared to participate in the event by having all required kit as detailed on our website. Missing required kit may disqualify you from proceeding from the start line and no refund will be given either in part or in full.

In order to participate in this event please ensure you are of reasonable fitness and as best prepared physically and mentally.
